

Have You Heard The News? Imo Is Alive Again

“You can be who you want to be, you can do what you want to do, you can go anywhere from where you are. If only you are willing to think big, dream great and work hard” (Robert Schuller). Therefore, Imo state indigenes living in Vienna, Austria are calling on all sons and daughters of the state for a meeting in order to have a formidable force and harmonise our various visions that should be capable to bring meaningful developments back home.

Date: 01.04.2012

Place: Schottenfelsgasse 58, 1070 Vienna, Austria

Time: 4:30pm prompt

No dream has ever come to reality without work and because no man is an island, therefore getting started in unity is the beginning of crushing barriers to success. Every Imolite is cordially invited irrespective of status, sex or position because our policy is an open policy based on mutual respect and understanding.

Our actions today are the results of tomorrow, so let us use this opportunity to play our parts in building Imo for the sake of posterity and our children. Remember, united we stand and divided we fall and do not forget that Imo is in the hands of God.
